

Op Sept - hand disinfectant

Op Sept - hand disinfectant

Type of preparation: Op Sept is a ready-to-use, for many years well-proven, alcoholic hand disinfectant for the hygienic and surgical hand disinfection. Op Sept is a rub-in preparation approved by the Federal German Agency for Medications and Medical Devices (BfArM). It is characterized by a very well skin tolerance also with regular application. Spectrum of efficacy: – comprehensively bactericidal, fungicidal, tuberculocidal; virucidal against HBV/HIV, Rota, Adeno, BVDV(HCV), Vaccinia and Noro-viruses in 30 sec. – also effective against MRSA – hygienic hand disinfection: reduction of the bacterial transient skin flora in 30 sec. – surgical hand disinfection in 5 min – very good skin tolerance also with long term use – also applicable for skin disinfection – tested according to DGHM and also to prEN 12791 (surgical hand disinfection 1,5 min; screening test A-05091 by Hygiene Nord GmbH, of 21 July 2005) Range of application: Hygienic and surgical hand disinfection Suitable for all areas with high requirements of hand hygiene in clinics, doctors` practices, ambulances, nursing homes as well as industry and laboratories delivery forms: 500 ml bottle

Article-No.: 990024

Product details:	Op Sept - hand disinfectant 500 ml bottle
Material:	100 g included: 73.5 g of ethanol; Other ingredients: most purified water, moisturizer / surfactant
Size:	500 ml
Standardize:	EN 1500 / EN 12791
Packing Units:	500 ml